

Certificate

October 2017

Pylyp Orlyk International Classical University (Ukraine, Mykolaiv, registration number 300 528, Licence of the Ministry of Education and Science of Ukraine AE 527891) in the person of the Rector of the University Matvienko Lyudmyla Pavlovna is appointed as the coordinator of educational projects New Education Technologies University, European Union, carried out jointly with academic partners York University, USA and SMC University, Switzerland.

On the basis of the Agreement on Academic Cooperation dated 9 September 2017 between New Education Technologies University and Pylyp Orlyk International Classical University, the task of the Pylyp Orlyk International Classical University is to provide legal advice and academic support for international educational projects in Ukraine for the period 2017-2022, including the search for academic partners, student recruitment and enrolment, office management, correspondence, and other activities provided for in this agreement.

Educational projects for the period 2017-2022 include dual diploma programmes for upgrading and re-qualification of academic qualifications within Bachelor, Master and Doctorate programmes, as well as opportunities for internships and practice for a period of one year in the EU with residence and work permits.

Maruta Goilo /signed/
Managing Director
New Education Technologies University

www.netu.lv